

...the rights of children ...

I Have rights

Article 13:
I have the right to find out and share information.

Article 15:
I have the right to meet with friends and to join groups.

Article 17:
I have the right to get information in lots of ways, so long as it's safe.

Article 28:
I have the right to an education.

Article 29:
I have the right to an education which develops my personality, respect for others' rights and the environment.

ALL ABOUT

The United Nations is a meeting where countries gather and discuss the difficult issues that affect people around the world, like war, poverty, famine and peace.

Rights are rules that allow to do or to have. Every child has rights, and should have. Children have rights to recognise childhood.

UNCRC is an international human rights agreement that grants all children and young people their rights. These set of rights

UNCRC
United Nations

Erica and Roodie
What is the UNCRC?
International human rights agreement of 1954 that gives all children and young people (under the age of 18) their rights. These set of rights cannot be force in the UK 1411

United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child

The UNCRC is an international human rights agreement or treaty that grants all children and young people (under age of 18) their rights.